

Music Mark Annual Conference 2019

Play the Bigger Game: Partnership, Collaboration and Enterprise

Thursday 21st November 2019

Time	Main space	Old Banqueting	Drawing Room	Reception Room	Quaker Rm4	Quaker MMR
1pm	Registration & Corporate Partners' Expo
2pm	WELCOME Music Mark AGM and Presentation of its vision, mission and strategy for the future	TEACH TOGETHER Sing Up and the Beat Goes On		TEACH TOGETHER Securing the talent pipeline through the RSL Awards diplomas at L4 and 6
2.45pm	Magid Magid, MEP , former Mayor of Sheffield, Green MEP	TEACH TOGETHER Co-creating innovative music curriculum at KS3 and 4 – Trinity College	TEACH TOGETHER Teaching Music in Partnership with Parents – MyMusicPB
3.30pm	Partnership in action – developing shared visions and practice – Leeds Music Education Partnership	Inclusive Access to Music Making – a joined up approach with OHMI, Creative United and Nottingham Music Hub	Building capacity and expertise through partnership - Music Education Solutions & Jersey Music Service	How a new partnership since 2016 has begun to change attitudes about music in the early years – Tees Valley Music Hub and First Thing Music	TEACH TOGETHER Create and Sing Hansel & Gretel with the Royal Opera House	TEACH TOGETHER Music & Wellbeing Initiative – Get On Your Feet!
4.30pm	Tea & Expo
5pm	Hot Topic Debate - What can Music Education Hub organisations do to support schools when Ofsted comes to call?	TEACH TOGETHER The Real Musicianship in DJ-ing, how to encourage it and how to assess it - DJ School UK		TEACH TOGETHER Synthesis: collaborative performance-based composition on iPad - Southampton Music Hub
6pm	Break – check-in to hotel
7pm	Drinks Reception & Expo
8pm	Dinner

Friday 22nd November 2019

Time	Main space	Old Banqueting	Drawing Room	Reception Room
8.30am	REGISTRATION & EXPO (Tea/Coffee available)
9.30am	Welcome
9.40	Susanna Eastburn MBE, CEO of Sound and Music
10.20	The Royal Opera House Goes Back to School – Partnership working with ROH and the United Learning Schools Group.
11am	Coffee & Expo
11.30	Resilience for Hubs – how to be a Music Education entrepreneur - Nigel Taylor	How to improve partnership working between SEND Schools, music hubs and arts organisations – a teacher perspective - Kelly-Jo Peter, Great Oaks School, Southampton	Collaborating to create exceptional performance by and for young musicians (Stringcredibles & Services for Education)	Do Different – exploring ways to capitalise on your own local networks, knowledge and experience – Norfolk Music Education Hub
12.30pm	Lunch & Expo
1.30pm	Erasmus MECLA Project – A music education and cultural learning alliance for the UK, Denmark & Czech Republic – Accent Music Education Hub	Inclusive Practice in different geographical locations – commonalities and learning together - MAC & Tri Borough	How can you really work in partnership with young people? BSharp and Dorset Music Education Hub on creating new music in a creative collaborative process with young people. - Dorset Music Education Hub	What makes jazz provision ‘excellent’ - NYJO
2.15			Can Compose: How we can support young composers and music creators through partnership and collaboration - Sound & Music	Youth orchestras for the 21st Century - NYO

3pm	Tea & Expo
3.30pm	Friday Afternoons: Supporting quality singing with young people and leaders	Engaging young people in inclusive ensemble music making - Orchestras for All & Sheffield Music Hub	Working in partnership you're your community – how to harness local musical enthusiasm for the benefits of your learners - Making Music	Connect – a blended learning case study – Cambridgeshire Music
4.25pm	I can see clearly now – A vision for Music Education
4.50pm	Final provocation
5pm	CLOSE

Click Here To Book Tickets