

CALLING
ALL MUSIC TEACHERS!

About the licence

The Schools Printed Music Licence has been developed by Printed Music Licensing Ltd (PMLL) who represent print and music publishers. If you are a school in England, Northern Ireland or Scotland* you are automatically covered by the Schools Printed Music Licence.

 Please note that schools in Wales and independent schools have other arrangements.*

Why must my school do this?

Submitting data about the sheet music you copy and arrange is a condition of your licence. It also helps the right music creators get paid their fair share of the royalties.

Essential information

Every time you copy sheet music, make a note of these:

- ✓ Work and book title
- ✓ Print and music publishers
- ✓ Composer and/or arranger
- ✓ Website (for digital copies)

EVERY COPY COUNTS

Great music teachers always log their sheet music

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE SCHOOLS PRINTED MUSIC LICENCE

Did you know you can legally copy and arrange music in your school?

The Schools Printed Music Licence is your licence to copy and arrange sheet music for your classes, ensembles, choirs and bands.

It means you can legally:

- Make photocopies and scans of sheet music
- Use score-writing software programmes to arrange printed music
- Make notations by hand on copies of printed music
- Upload scans of music to a Virtual Learning Environment or similar secure network.

All you have to do is submit data about the copies you make.

Submit your data and unlock free resources

- Exclusive teaching resources for your classrooms
- A free mixed ensemble arrangement
- Access to webinars by leading music industry experts for your students
- Access to our Teacher Exchange virtual sessions
- Essential guides on music publishing careers and demystifying copyright

What you need to do

Visit our website and follow the simple steps to submit your data

www.everycopycounts.co.uk

Don't forget to follow us: @EveryCopyCounts

Department for Education