

GUITAR TEACHING VACANCY (MATERNITY COVER)

To start June 2026

or as soon as possible thereafter

Are you passionate about music education and excited by the opportunity to help young students engage in music? We're looking for an inspiring and skilled Guitar Teacher to join our vibrant team and bring guitars to life through engaging lessons that spark curiosity and confidence.

For this role, you will need to be proficient in guitar and be able to commit to 21.5 hours a week of dedicated one-to-one, small-group and after-school groups and be capable of teaching classical, ukulele, acoustic and beginner electric guitar in a variety of Kirklees school settings, predominantly in the Shelley area, throughout the length of the cover period. This will include Saturday morning Music Centre.

A job share would be considered for this vacancy.

If you're enthusiastic about empowering students through music and eager to contribute to a supportive, creative team, we'd love to hear from you.

This position will be hourly paid at £29.12 per contact hour, plus pension contributions

You will require an Enhanced DBS and be able to travel between schools each working day.

Application forms are available via our website <https://www.musicakirklees.org/about-us/vacancies>

Closing date for applications: Wednesday the 18th of March at 10pm

Provisional interview date: Monday the 23rd of March
