What we do

Sing Education source and train music teachers, develop teaching resources and provide management and consultancy services to schools in London. We enable children to encounter the transformative power of music in their lives, by experiencing the joy of singing and making music collectively at school.

Sing Education currently teach over 20000 children per week across London, Yorkshire, Slough and Kent. We are on our 7th edition of our own teaching resource. We provide each Sing Education teacher with over 70 hours per year of in-house training covering our schemes of work, running extra-curricular activities, classroom management and more. We have a growing team of over 90 highly motivated, skilled music teachers.

Teaching typically includes:

- Weekly teaching, full school day - 8.45am-3.30/4.30pm, term time
- Permanent placement in a Sing Education primary school/s
- Teaching from 1 to 5 days per week
- Singing-led curricular whole-class music lessons - Nursery to Year 6 following Sing Education teaching resources
- Singing assemblies
- Choirs, lunchtime and after school clubs
- Our primary schools are located across the boroughs of Hillingdon, Ealing, Hounslow, Kensington & Chelsea, Hackney and Brent in London.
