

Are you interested in working for a Music Education Hub?

Find out about working for a successful inner London music hub

Learn, network and gain information about future employment at our FREE TO ATTEND interactive, practical workshop delivered by experienced teachers of Brent Music Service

SATURDAY 25TH APRIL 2020 10AM - 2.30PM • WILLESDEN, LONDON, NW2
TO BOOK YOUR PLACE, PLEASE REGISTER AT: <http://bit.ly/meh20>

Tea, coffee and light lunch provided

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Primary or secondary teachers/current music students/recent graduates
- Those interested in teaching:
 - Whole class primary music
 - Small group/individual instrumental/vocal teaching
 - Whole Class Ensemble Tuition (WCET)
- Those interested in learning about the teaching methods and approaches used by BMS
- Secondary music teachers delivering primary outreach or considering moving to the primary phase
- Those interested in applying to BMS for teaching starting September 2020

WHAT'S COVERED?

- Approaches and strategies for whole class music teaching
- Instrumental teaching using the voice and body
- Ideas and resources for small group teaching
- Working in partnership with class teachers
- Creative assessment strategies
- Introduction to the BMS "Music'sCool" syllabus
- Whole-class music and movement activities for EYFS and KS1
- Opportunities to explore repertoire and resources
- Share knowledge and expertise
- Receive feedback from experienced MEH professionals

Supported using public funding by

ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

@brentmusicserv

/brentmusicervice

www.brent.gov.uk/bms

brentmusicserv