

Working for a Music Education Hub

An interactive and practical session delivered by experienced senior teachers from Brent Music Service

Saturday 11th May 2019

10.00am-2.30pm Willesden, London, NW10

Free to attend. Tea, coffee and light lunch provided

Register Online at: <http://bit.ly/workingforameh>

Find out about working for a successful inner London Music Hub. Opportunities for learning, networking and gaining information about future employment.

Who should attend?

Primary teachers, secondary teachers, current music students/recent graduates with an interest in working for a Music Service in the Primary Phase

Teachers currently training for QTS

Instrumental/vocal teachers/musicians interested in working for BMS teaching individuals or small groups

Secondary teachers who may be doing primary school outreach

Instrumental/vocal teachers interested in gaining experience teaching whole class music

What's covered?

Whole Class Ensemble techniques

Teaching methods and approaches used by BMS

Instrumental teaching through the voice and body

Ideas and resources for small group teaching

Working in partnership with class teachers

Assessment strategies

Leading whole class music and movement activities in EYFS and KS1

Introduction to the BMS "Music'sCool" syllabus

Opportunity to practise skills, increase knowledge of repertoire and resources and receive feedback from experienced teachers

Tips for making a good job application to a Music Hub

