

LIVE MUSIC NOW AUDITIONS

WEST MIDLANDS

8TH JULY 2019, BIRMINGHAM

Live Music Now was founded in 1977 by violinist Yehudi Menuhin and is the largest participatory music and musicians' development organisation in the UK. The charity aims to:

- Support talented musicians with paid performance opportunities and ongoing training.
- Provide interactive performances and workshops in venues such as special schools, residential care homes and hospitals.

We are looking for excellent musicians and ensembles to perform in a range of community settings. All musical styles welcome. Musicians should be in the early stages of their professional careers. We particularly welcome applications from deaf and disabled artists.

If this sounds like you, register online for application information: www.livemusicnow.org.uk/request_an_application_form

Closing date for applications is 24th May 2019.

For more information about the scheme, or help completing the form, call 029 2055 4298 or email auditions@livemusicnow.org
